Mary,

Before our call with Earthjustice on Tuesday, do you have time to chat re: ADC's position? I'm available all day Monday. I've done some research on ADC's position and found relevant documents that show that ADC is subject to Title VI (since HDOA receives fed. Funds). I found a district court case that considered a similar issue that ADC has raised. The court decided against the agency and found it subject to the Rehabilitation Act, even though it did not directly receive funds like ADC. Pgs 9-14 of the case lays this out. Also, the second attachment shows how ADC does not exercise that much of its own independent control over its operations.
